Peeler Group International adds New Location

PGI is approved for licensing in the State of Nevada

Las Vegas, NV, June 26, 2017 – Peeler Group International, a subsidiary of The Peeler Group, Inc. has received approval for licensing by the PILB in Nevada for Patrolmen Services.

Bill Peeler, President of The Peeler Group, Inc. stated that this is one of several actions the company will take in providing its core services to existing and prospective clients.

Peeler Group International is establishing a stronger presence in the major markets where services are required. Having a local presence provides a stronger network within those communities and better responsiveness to client and customer needs.

Customers of PGI have shared their approval of this and future locations, stating they appreciate the consistency in services through having a security provider in that may be utilized in multiple regions.

Founded in 1995, The Peeler Group, Inc. and Peeler Group International, provides Executive Protection, Security Drivers, Risk Management and Logistical Support services to mid-size and fortune businesses on a national and international basis, with offices in New York, Florida and Nevada.
